ED PHYSICIAN

Permanent Position

November 1, 2017

The West Nipissing General Hospital (WNGH) boasts a clean, modern facility with excellent support services. We have 98 beds (31 Acute Care, 19 Complex Continuing Care and 48 Long-Term Care) in addition to a 24-hour Emergency Department. Currently, the community is served by 8 full-time general practitioners, one full-time internist, visiting surgeons and visiting specialists. We host regular cardiology, urology, pediatric, otolaryngology, gastroenterology, sleep clinic, and psychiatry clinics with consultation visits by visiting specialists.

Job Summary

The ED Physician will be responsible for assessing all visits presenting to the Emergency Department during the shift, responsible for calls from Nursing Care Unit (NCU) and Complex Continuing Care (CCC) after 2300 hours until 0700 hours regarding patient care. Each shift is staffed with (2) RNs, (1) RPN and a second on-call physician. The ED physician will see, on average, 52 patients per 24 hour shift.

Opportunities

Flexible scheduling with both 12 hour and/or 24 hour shifts

Teach medical students/residents through WNGH's affiliation with the Northern Ontario School of Medicine (NOSM), McMaster, University of Ottawa etc.

Compensation

The ED Physicians are funded through the Emergency Department Alternative Funding Agreement (ED AFA) and physicians who participate in second on-call and provide in-patient care are compensated through Hospital On-Call coverage (HOCC). The ED AFA offers an hourly rate along with a 10% return on shadow billing for regular shifts with a 25% return on shadow billing on statutory holidays.

Hours

8 (12 hour) shifts (or more) per month
